

GDPR Policy

As a UK- based company, we take our obligations under GDPR very seriously. We are committed to protecting the personal data of our clients, employees, suppliers and any other individuals whose data we process.

To this end, we have put in place policies, procedures and technical measures to ensure that we comply with GDPR. Some of the steps we have taken include.

- Implementing technical and organizational measures to protect personal data, including access controls, encryption and regular backups.
- Ensuring that we have appropriate contracts in place with any third-party service providers who process personal data on our behalf
- Responding promptly and effectively to any data breaches that may occur
- Maintaining records of our data processing activities, including the legal basis for processing personal data and any third-party recipients of the data.

We are committed to ensuring that we comply with GDPR and will continue to review our policies and procedures to ensure that we remain up to date with any changes in data protection law.

Signed
Managing Director

2nd January 2026